Food service has money to spend - maybe a vehicle, snack machine or equipment in the kitchen.
Alice training in November for all staff.

VII. Student Representative - Micah Bolton
Great to have Powder Puff game back. The student section will be Halloween themed. The school feels safer and fun. Drug prevention concert was good. Homecoming - it was great to have all the decorations. Hoping for a formal dance in November. Overall things are running smoothly.

VIII. Principal Report - Mr. LaLonde
None

Principal Report - Mr. Trapp

Good homecoming week. Lots of spirit. Good staff participation. Substance Abuse concert was good. School improvement team brainstormed and worked with students and gave them a challenge. PD was about maximizing learning time. Continuing to collect data on tardies and discipline. Powder Puff on Wednesday. Fall break - great idea!

PASS Director Report - Mrs. Kunzelman

Students came over and attended pep assembly and liked it. Follow up survey with students on how they feel they have progressed through the first quarter. The upperclassmen are showing leadership towards younger students.

IX. Smith Elementary Presentation - Mr. Edwards

Goals of year - relationships with students and families. The students are happy coming into school. Greeted at the door by various staff members.

Implementing the Positivity Project - Today it started. Creating relationships with students. Teacher training was done during professional development. Teachers are spending 10-15 minutes per day on character traits. Focused on positive relationships - how it affects others. "Other people matter" Each week will focus on a character trait/strength
Academic - looking at student outcomes in spring 2023
